Thank You. Saturday, Sept. 3 was a day we will cherish forever, the beautiful weather, the wonderful food and music, fabulous friends and last but not least our awesome family, made us so proud and happy as we celebrated our 50th wedding anniversary. Thanks to everyone who attended and made it such a special day for us. With love and blessings, Diane and Jackie MacEachern

Coming up, 12% by 2015 Nova Scotia Environment is presently in the process of identifying new protected areas for Nova Scotia. One of the proposed areas consist of 13000 ha covering the north, west and south side of the existing French River wilderness area located on the plateau between Indian Brook and Wreck Cove. For more info on the process and proposed protected lands, look up http://www.gov.ns.ca/nse/12percent/maps.asp#regional_maps or contact Anne (929-2012), annaclaudia11@hotmail.com. There will be opportunities for you to express your support and/or concern in the coming months. The Friends of the North Shore St-Ann's Bay Watersheds will keep you informed of meeting dates through the event sheet. Thanks, Anne-Claude Pèpin.
